

Deacon Gaston NK Mabaya

Deacon Gaston was born on November 15, 1948 in Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC, in Africa). He is married to Wivine Masamba and is a father of eight children (four boys and four girls). He is trained as an Engineer. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering at University of Kinshasa (DRC), and his Ph.-D's degree in Telecommunications, specialized in Fiber Optics at University of Ghent in Belgium. He taught at University of Kinshasa (DRC) before moving to Canada with his family in 1999. He taught at Humber College in Toronto before joining 3M Canada in London, and then ACFO de London-Sarnia in London from where he retired in March 2017. Deacon Gaston was ordained Permanent Deacon by Bishop Fabbro on November 5, 2011. He was assigned to St Michael's Parish in November 2011, moved to St Marguerite d'Youville in 2014, and now he is back to St. Michael's Parish.