The sight of the star filled them with delight and going into the house they saw the child with His mother, Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then opening their treasures, they offered Him gifts of gold and frankincense, and myrrh.” Matt 2:10-12

This account of the birth of Jesus always fills me with great delight. The wise men are you and I. We are the wise in the world today for we recognize that the child born of Mary is the Christ. The action of prayer given by the wise men is an action that each of us manifests when we come to celebrate the Eucharist. We fall prostrate for we are in the presence of God. We offer our treasure which manifests our faith. The gift of gold speaks of our belief that Jesus is King of Heaven. The gift of frankincense proclaims our belief that Jesus is God. The gift of myrrh recognizes that this God-King will offer His life as the sacrifice that frees his brothers and sisters.

For over 100 years, the believing community of St. Michael’s has gathered on this sacred ground to celebrate the birth of Christ. The community has professed its faith in the Incarnation - that God took flesh and was born of the Virgin Mary and that He shared our humanity completely. Jesus proclaimed by word and deed that God loves each of us.

We gather to remember this moment in time when God entered human history as a human being. We remember each Sunday that Jesus died so that we might live. We offer the gift of His body and blood only to be given His body and blood so that we can be His body in our world today.

The Parish team invites you to come celebrate the anniversary of the birth of Christ. Join us in singing the old familiar Christmas carols. These chorals have been sung for 100 years on this holy ground. We desire to spend this sacred time with you.

We pray that the Christ will pour out His blessing upon you. May Mary and Joseph pray for you and your families, and may St. Michael the Archangel protect you from all evil.

Fr. Murray
Thank you for warmly welcoming me into your midst. It is with great joy that I join the St. Michael’s Parish Family! God has gifted me with my new ministry here among you as one of your parish pastoral ministers. I am delighted to be a member of our Parish Pastoral Team, ministering alongside Fr. Murray, Fr. John, Natalie, and Lorne. My transition into life among you has been made easier with the cheerful and helpful assistance of all of our parish staff.

Since St. Michael’s Church has been a very familiar place of worship for me, and I have participated in various parish ministries over the years, I feel at home here. My roots are in Southwestern Ontario. I grew up on a farm north of Goderich, in a little hamlet called Kintail. My family consists of my parents, three sisters, and three brothers and their families. My Dad and my brother, John, have died and truly live on in my heart. Faith and life were very much intertwined in our home, in our parish of St. Joseph’s in Kingsbridge, and at St. Joseph’s Elementary School. My passion for pastoral ministry was born in those early years.

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph is my religious family. Both St. Peter’s Seminary, in London, and Regis College, in Toronto, were enriching places of learning and provided growth in my spiritual life. The ministries that have blessed my life include working with hospital patients and their families in the Guest Wing of Mount St. Joseph, being Parish Pastoral Minister in both Timmins and London; acting as Director of Field Education at St. Peter’s Seminary, ministering in several health care settings as a Hospital Chaplain, and meeting with persons as a Spiritual Director.

When I consider the wonderful, dedicated parishioners involved in over fifty ministries here at St. Michael’s Parish and the countless ways in which each of you bring God to the many places where you live and work, I feel a deep sense of gratitude for how well you reach out to one another in love and service, and thereby, give glory to God. Parishioners take their baptismal call seriously, realizing their great potential as the light of Christ in our world. We are the People of God, the Church — each and every one of us. My vision and hope is that parishioners will join me in forming teams for the ministries of Baptismal Preparation in the homes, the weekly Wednesday evening sessions for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, visiting the homes of grieving persons and leading Prayer at the Funeral Homes.

As we stand on the threshold of our 100th Anniversary as a parish, may all of us be touched in a powerful way by God’s Spirit so that we may continue to bring about God’s reign of love, justice, and mercy.
This week I had the pleasure of calling a parent whose child is an altar server here at St. Michael's Church. Our conversation began with the usual formalities and then evolved into so much more. We talked in great detail about the Catholic faith and also about the gift that her daughter gives at mass as an altar server. We must have talked for about an hour at which point the woman said to me: “Thank you for spending the time to get to know my daughter.” My response was simple, “It’s important for your daughter to know the love that her church community has for her.” There are many goals which I might aspire to achieve in my role as Pastoral Minister but I consider each of those goals a loss because of the surpassing worth of communicating the love of God from heart to heart. “Cor ad Cor Loquitor.” Blessed John Henry Newman devoted himself both personally and spiritually to these words that mean, “Heart speaks to heart.” In all humility, it is my hope that these words will also come to define my presence here at St. Michael’s Church.

Nothing can compare to the experience of seeing with one’s own eyes and hearing with one’s own ears a parent, a spouse, or even a friend say intimately the words, “I love you.” Therefore, it is only fitting that your Church community remind you of God’s deep affection for you this season. To all the Church faithful, God loves you for being who are and for raising your children to be who they ought to be: saints. To the Altar Servers, YOU ROCK!!! God loves you so much for sacrificing your Sunday mornings to help Fr. Murray and Fr. John celebrate mass. To the Music Ministers, God loves you for taking so much time out of your personal lives to give glory to God through the sound of music. How precious is the way in which God loves you, the Eucharistic Ministers, as you share the gift of Jesus’ Body and Blood with your brothers and sisters in Christ. To the Welcome Desk and Ushers who week after week are often the first face that parishioners see when they come to our Sunday Liturgies - God loves you with such affection as you serve in being the face of God and the face of St. Michael’s Church to all who come. To the Lectors who study the Word of God to proclaim on earth as it is in heaven the way in which God has loved us since the beginning, God loves you for carrying his sacred words into the hearts of the faithful.

We as Christians need to say to the people we love, “I love you.” Make sure to take time this season to tell the ones you love that you love them. And above all we need to say to God that we love him in our thoughts and in the depths of our hearts, for only through love can we speak from heart to heart. St. Michael’s Church, I love you.

Our History
Medaille Retreat House, located at 545 Fanshawe Pk. Rd., London, offers solitude, beauty and caring in a picturesque setting where participants can enjoy the beauty of nature. Six private bedrooms allow for restful overnight retreat time. Daytime events can comfortably accommodate up to 12 people.

Our retreat centre is a place that calls one to personal spiritual awakening with times available for personal retreats and days of quiet reflection. A spiritual companion will be available, upon request, to journey with you during your retreat, or you may wish to provide your own resources.

Among the many programs that we offer are opportunities for weekend silent retreats, directed retreats, weekend retreats for women and men in recovery programs, such as AA, Al Anon, etc., as well as days of prayer and reflection during Lent and Advent. We also offer the yearly New Years’ Eve event which focuses on gratitude for the past year and hope for the coming year.

Medaille Retreat House is owned and operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph of London. Our team consists of two Sisters: Kathleen Lichti, Director, Suzanne Chevalier, adjunct staff member, and, in a support and hospitality capacity, Carol Brady-Zinn, our secretary and Tracey Morton-Sader, our cook/housekeeper.

Arrangements may be made by groups or individuals at any time for directed retreats, specific theme retreats and/or days of quiet reflection.

Labyrinth
We have a 60 feet labyrinth on the grounds, and we look forward to sharing with you this ancient spiritual practice of walking meditation. Please know that you are welcome to walk the labyrinth if it is available whenever you happen to be in the area. You may wish to call us to make arrangements to use the Labyrinth.

Spiritual Direction
Spiritual Direction is also known as Spiritual Companioning. It is a gentle, non-judgmental process of Holy Listening with another person on aspects of one’s life in order to recognize how God is being revealed. In this process, one is free to express questions, doubts, sort through decisions, and experience mystery and the call to engagement in the world.

Bookings
If you wish to participate in one of our programs or if you want to book space for an individual or group retreat at Medaille House, please contact us by phone at 519-641-1379 or by email at medaille@csj.london.on.ca. We invite you to check out our web site at: www.csj.london.on.ca and click on the tab for “Contemporary Spirituality.”
“BELIEVING † REMEMBERING † CELEBRATING” is the message we have created for our 100th Anniversary Year. We are very proud to display this slogan on our banner posted on the outside walls of the church for all Londoners to see. It is an invitation reaching out to all to join us in our celebrations throughout this special year. As a Eucharistic Community, we remember our roots and hope that all families within our parish as well as former parishioners will return to celebrate and share with us during the year.

“I remember when………..” These are words that are being heard more frequently as the Anniversary Steering Committee searches for parishioners who have been in our parish for fifty or more years. Three of our sub committees are working collaboratively to capture the stories, the pictures, and the beautiful memories, over ten decades, that “pioneers or heritage folks” of St. Michael’s Parish remember and are able to tell us about. It is our intent to capture our past and the present in the Family Photo Album to celebrate with our elderly parishioners at our Heritage Tea and to make a video (or photojam) which will depict our rich history through the stories that are shared. Our committee needs to hear from all parishioners who have some memories of our past. Please share these with us so that we can understand the present in terms of the past. There have been incredible changes in all aspects of our lives when we look back and compare the years between 1911 and 1961 to those between 1961 and 2011. Please leave your name and phone number with the office or leave your information or story at the Welcome Desk; one of our committee members will be happy to contact you.

Our Wedding Anniversary Celebrations, on the weekend of February 12/13, will be a special time for couples who are celebrating special anniversaries (ending in 0 or 5) to be recognized at all masses, followed by a reception where younger and older couples can meet and share their wedding stories. There will be displays of wedding pictures and other memorabilia to enjoy.

We will have our Heritage Tea on June 1st to gather with long-time members for a time of thanksgiving, remembrance and celebration. This will be a wonderful way to recognize and honour the contributions of those parishioners who were part of the old church and who helped build the new church. These are the folks who worked valiantly throughout many early years to keep the parish vibrant throughout the many challenges of our parish community. Please register at the office or the Welcome Desk your name or that of an elderly family member who has been part of this parish for fifty or more years. We want to recognize our pioneers!

Our Heritage Cookbook has been a huge success with almost 1,000 cookbooks sold within the first six weeks. These impressive cookbooks make great Christmas or hostess gifts! Thank you to all the parishioners who contributed 443 favourite family recipes. We may have to consider a second printing of the cookbook in the new year!

The Family Photo Directory has gone very well. Special thanks to Lynda Ducharme for all her time and dedication in making this album an historical perspective of our church through the years. It will be a wonderful keepsake for our centennial and should be completed in late spring. Thank you also to the committee members (Pam Beker, Katherine Viner, Ollie Wolanski, Nic Snary and Karen Owens) as well as the numerous people who volunteered as the telephone committee and to the hosts and hostesses who assisted in the portrait sittings.

The excitement of the centennial year has caught on with many people readily volunteering their time and talents to make this a year to remember from the planning stages to the end of our celebrations. We will need many more volunteers and ministries to assist with the “Calendar of Events” that has been planned to bring us all together as a community of faith in our celebrations. But most importantly, we encourage every family in our parish to join us in “BELIEVING † REMEMBERING † CELEBRATING” throughout our centennial year!
John Paul II Catholic Secondary School was named after Pope John Paul II who was considered by many to be the “Peoples’ Pope”. He led our world-wide Catholic Church for almost 27 years, one of the longest terms in history. His Holiness personally autographed a picture with all students and staff present in front of the school in 1998. Pope John Paul II would have been proud of our school’s motto: Maturare in Dignatatem, meaning to Mature with Dignity. What an honour, a privilege and a responsibility it is to carry his name into the future.

JP II opened in September 1985, under founding Principal, Mr. Tom Johnston, in the former St. Lawrence Catholic Elementary School at 920 Huron Street. The school opened in this location with only grade nine and grade ten students. These were the few brave and courageous students who left the comforts of Catholic Central High, the only London and Middlesex Roman Catholic Separate School Board’s Catholic high school at the time to become the founding “seniors” as Grade Ten members of JP II. They were joined by equally adventurous Grade Nines from our many feeder schools.

The school’s population grew rapidly, as did its reputation, and by the second year, there were 220 students. The future of John Paul II Catholic School was now envisioned as a large school offering a broad range of programming, and planning began for the building of the new school. To provide Mr. Johnston with enough time to “grow” the school and to plan for a new building, Mr. Barney Rooney, Principal of the private boys’ school, Regina Mundi College, was brought in to assist at JP II. Upon Mr. Rooney’s retirement, Mr. Johnston moved to CCH, and Mr. Robert Mitchell became Principal of JP II to oversee the students, staff and the new building on the corner of Highbury and Oxford Streets. The projected opening enrollment for the new location was approximately 800 students. Imagine the surprise when it actually opened with 1000 – so began the interest from our non-Catholic families within the community.

John Paul II opened at its current location in 1991 and is now considered to be the oldest of the “new” Catholic Secondary Schools as it was the first to respond to funding by the Bill Davis Provincial Government. Originally built for 1100 students, at a cost of 16 million dollars, the school now has over 180,000 square feet of space, comprised of the main building and two “porta-packs”. Also, five classes in the neighbouring Robarts/Amethyst school are utilized to accommodate our 1400 plus students and 130 staff.

Our current students come to us from six Catholic “feeder schools”: Blessed Sacrament, Holy Family, St. Anne’s, St. Berndette’s, St. Pius, and St. Robert’s. JP II has additional strengths and challenges because almost 50% of our students are from non-Catholic schools, making JP II the Catholic Secondary School with the highest percentage of non-Catholics. Our non-Catholic families tell us that they are immediately attracted to the pristinely kept school (with special accolades to our custodial staff) because it “feels” welcoming and safe and has a solid reputation in the community.

Our reputation is built upon our Catholic framework. Our uniformed school offers a comprehensive Religious Studies program, providing opportunities for spiritual growth, examination of cultural diversity and participation in Eucharistic celebrations, liturgies, retreats and special projects aimed at understanding our relationship with God through prayer, reflection, and service to others. The school’s spiritual focus is our beautiful Chapel located on the second floor directly in the centre of the main building.

Our Catholic identity extends from the Chapel and from scripture to every corner of our building, to every event, project, class and to every team/club. Upon graduation from a Catholic school, we pose the question “Who have you become?” The Catholic Graduate Expectations can be found posted prominently in every classroom as a reflection of our commitment to each other. At JP II, we invite our students to a dialogue through three questions: “Have you been treated with kindness?”, “Have you been treated with respect?”, and “Have you been treated with fairness?”

Our Catholic School Improvement Plan has four areas of focus: Catholicity (culture and climate), Literacy, Numeracy and Pathways. Catholicity, Literacy and Numeracy are seen as being cross-curricular. They should not and do not occur in isolation. Catholicity is not a “Religion thing”. Literacy is not an “English thing”. Numeracy is not a “Mathematics thing”. We aim to bring alive the components of each of these areas in ALL classes and in ALL subjects.

Pathways refers to the career paths available to our students and graduates. In this regard, JP II is exemplary. We truly have tremendous opportunities available for our students. We lead the London District Catholic School Board in Specialist High Skills Major Programs, with offerings in Transportation, Manufacturing, Art and Culture, and Hospitality. We have the largest Technology Program, the widest range of opportunities and course offerings in applied and locally developed courses, an ESL Program, supports for all students through Guidance and Student Success, and the ability to focus on those with special needs through an expanded Learning Services and School to Community Program. We continue to graduate students well above the provincial average with the majority pursuing post-secondary education at the college and university level. We offer a comprehensive sports program with a history of excellence including numerous TVRAA, WOSSAA, and OFSAA championships. Our graduates are counted among those in professional sport including the NHL. Our students are successful due to their hard work, the help of their families, the dedication of our outstanding staff, and the support of our parishes including St. Michael.

It has been my pleasure to serve the students, families and community of JP II as a teacher from 1986 – 1999 and as Principal since January 2008. While I am charged to lead this school community, honoring its tradition of excellence, I do so with the support of an outstanding staff of custodians, secretaries, educational assistants, teachers, vice-principals and other support staff. The school community means a great deal to us. We will continue to lead by “Maturare in Dignitatem”, and we will live our faith through kindness, respect and fairness. God Bless.

Fr. Philip Chircop is a Jesuit priest born on the Mediterranean Island of Malta. He has advanced degrees in Pastoral Theology, Communications and Spirituality. He has worked in high school, university and parish settings in various capacities. More recently he has been involved in retreat work and spiritual direction. He is an artist at heart and madly in love with all things beautiful and soulful: music, painting, sculpture, photography, film, theater, poetry, good company, good food, good wine and more. He strongly believes that beauty is a uniquely wonderful entry into the mystery of the God “whose centre is everywhere and whose circumference is nowhere.”

Fr. Philip considers himself a seeker, exploring fresh ways to proclaim the Good News in the hope of helping fellow pilgrims and seekers to embrace real and radical changes that will lead to conversion and transformation.

Each year, around Valentine’s Day, the parish hosts a Marriage Preparation Weekend. The weekend is designed to be a time of affirmation for young couples who intend to marry. This is a time to affirm their love for each other and to hear God’s invitation to reveal His love to the world. During the weekend, approximately 20 engaged couples are hosted by married couples. These couples are divided into smaller groups to facilitate better sharing and interaction. We also have leader couples who share their experiences on a variety of topics such as communication, family, children, finances and faith. After a leader couple has shared their reflection, the participants break up into groups where they are invited to discuss and reflect on some of the issues. Following a 20 minute reflection time, each engaged couple has the opportunity to share their thoughts.

I want to express a sincere thank you to our host and leader couples. Without you this great ministry of support to couples would not happen. In the midst of the culture today, we need to say to these engaged couples that marriage is a blessing, a wonderful gift from God, and that fidelity and a lifelong commitment is what we, as a church, believe in.

If anyone is interested in serving these couples as a host or leader couple, please contact Fr. Murray at 519-433-6689 x202. We are always in need of more couples to assist with hosting, teaching, and the practical process of feeding these young people.
What started three years ago as a pilot project at St. Michael’s has now become the model for all four formation groups at St. Peter’s Seminary. In 2007, the pastoral team at St. Michael’s was approached by the Seminary and asked to accept a group of seminarians into the parish. The group would attend masses once a month with the parish. During the week, seminarians would be involved in different works of service in the parish or the schools. Involvement would range from visiting in the schools to assisting with the RCIA and preaching by the group’s deacon. Two of the members, Andrew White and Peter Melanson, are available for home visits. They also assist in altar server training and sacramental preparation. The goal is to give all seminarians practical experience of parish life and to expose them to collaborative ministry at the parish level. For the parish, it is a way to support vocations and to come to know the seminarians.

Once again, members of Formation Group A are partnered with St. Michael’s. Many of the faces you will see at mass will be familiar to you. Taking over as group leader is Fr. Peter Amszej who is completing doctoral studies and began teaching this year at the Seminary. Returning this year after serving his pastoral year (a full year in a parish between 2nd and 3rd year of theology) is John Redmond. New to Group A is Tim Theriault. Tim is from Amherstburg, Ontario, and he is one of eight new seminarians studying in the Diocese of London. Tim is just at the beginning of his journey to priesthood in his first year of the three year Arts program. In their second year of theology we have: Chris Marentette from Belle River, Ontario, from the east coast we have Andrew White, who is studying for the Diocese of Corner Brook and Labrador, Newfoundland, and from the Diocese of St. John Newfoundland is Peter Melanson. Matt Orlowski from Saskatoon is in his first year of theology and Deacon Ben Huyge, who will preach the occasional sermon at Sunday Eucharist, are the other members of group A. For Chris, Peter, and Andrew, this is their third year helping and learning at St. Michael’s, and they are happy to be here once again before they leave for their sixteen month pastoral year.
Youth Reflections

Reflections from members of the Youth Ministry and the Youth Commission

Stations of the Cross and World Youth Day – Christina De Vincenzo – I have had the privilege to participate in youth ministry at St. Michael’s Parish for many years. I have always had a special interest in the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday portrayed by the youth: an experience that brings young people together to walk in Jesus’ footsteps. My first experience was in 2002 when I played the role of Veronica. I was given a letter from the young woman who portrayed Veronica at the Way of the Cross at WYD 2002 in Toronto. She inspired me to serve others in simple ways, just as Veronica did when she wiped the face of Jesus. This tableau format invites young people with many talents to get involved. My hope is that new people join and lead our parish in prayer this coming Good Friday. I have also been fortunate to go on a pilgrimage to Sydney, Australia for World Youth Day 2008. Memories flow like it was yesterday: I have new friends from around the world, I experienced Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with the Holy Father, I even got to pet a kangaroo. I look forward to the journey to Madrid in August 2011.

Scott Veenvliet – Hello to my new family! I’m a recent convert who joined the Catholic faith this past Easter, and I’m also a happy new member of the Youth Commission at St. Michael’s. I am pleased to report that I have witnessed a great deal of energy and vision from the people serving on the youth commission team, and we have many hopes and dreams for the youth of St. Michael’s Parish. If you have a desire to help the teens and children at St. Michael’s get closer to Christ, please share your ideas, and your willingness to help, with myself or any member of the Youth Commission, and we’ll gladly incorporate your ideas and talents. God is calling for his children to minister to his world, let’s listen to his call and help our children grow closer to him in love.

Frank Maas – Sports for Grades 5-8 and Grades 9-12. I was interested in serving the parish community through the Youth Commission because I thought the lessons I learnt from challenges to my faith could help others. For me, one of the biggest problems was trying to integrate my spirituality into daily life; it seemed as if I only prayed when I wanted something. However, while playing baseball one day, I was struck by the beauty of the field and the sunset, and I said a prayer thanking God for the gift of the game and being able to play. I realized then that spirituality has many dimensions, even sports! I am very happy to coordinate the Youth Sports Nights, and I look forward to every Sunday that we play. It has been very enjoyable to be in such a welcoming and energetic atmosphere, and I am grateful for the opportunity.

Paul Tremblay – Although the Youth Commission is in its infancy, a variety of activities have sprouted over the last two years. Our group includes members who are passionate about various domains including sports and the arts. Artistic activities have included Christmas card contests. The cards of contest winners, in two age categories, were printed and sent to people in nursing homes. Other artistic activities have included the Sacred Movement Dance and a Coffee House with music performed by high school students. Witnessing these activities has shown us that the youth of St. Michael have tremendous creative potential. Creativity can lead to a sense of meaning in people’s lives, and what better way to exercise this potential than within the spirit of our Christian heritage. We are rewarded in many ways when we express our creativity including the experience of positive emotions such as amusement, awe, inspiration, contentment, gratitude, joy, and interest. The creative possibilities of our youth are endless; with a little push of encouragement and commitment from our commission, parents, and friends, we can help our youth unlock their artistic talents.

Rosa Crecca – First Eucharist Preparation. Last spring I had the opportunity to assist in preparing a group of children for their First Eucharist. During the four weeks of preparation we helped the children understand the different parts of the mass. We started with why we gather as a community. We then talked about why we listen to God’s message of his love for all of us. Our main focus was how, by the power of the Holy Spirit, the bread and wine become Christ’s Body and Blood. Finally we discussed how we are sent out to serve one another as Christ serves us. The children all enjoyed taking a tour of the church and tasting the bread. It was a privilege to watch the children grow closer to Jesus and see how excited they became as they looked forward to their First Eucharist.
